AGENDA ITEM 5D: REPORT FROM THE REFORM AND RENEWAL AD HOC COMMITTEE/ SYSTEMTRANSFORMATIONCOMMITTEE’S RECOMMENDATIONS

Board Member Willie E. Hendricks, Chairman of the Board’s Reform and Renewal Ad Hoc Committee and Board liaison to the System Transformation Committee, described the Committee’s involvement in the process used by the System Transformation Committee in arriving at its recommendations for the new business model for Southern University System and campuses. Mr. Hendricks noted that the current financial situation confronting the University served as an impetus for the Transformation Committee’s charge and that the proposed recommendations being submitted for the Board’s consideration and action at today’s meeting are pivotal to the University’s continuing survival. He solicited the Board members’ support of the System Transformation Committee’s recommendations.

Several members inquired into the makeup of the Board’s Reform and Renewal Ad Hoc Committee that was tasked with oversight of the System Transformation Committee. They were advised that Board Chairman Mire appointed Clayton, Dinvaunt, Kelly, Lawson, Smith and himself ex-officio to the committee chaired by Board Member Hendricks.

Board members noted their concerns following their review of the System Transformation Committee’s proposal. They suggested a delay of Board action for 30-60 days in order to obtain additional input from the various University constituencies.

The System Transformation Committee’s recommendations impact the four University areas listed below:

- Information Technology
- Enrollment Services
- Finance and Business
- External Affairs

In each of the areas above, the goals, key findings, strategic recommendations, and/or a revised organizational chart were delineated.

In his presentation, President Mason described the Committee’s proposal “as a business model that is technology-based, financially efficient, and that provides the campuses with reliable back office support.” If implemented, the President advised, the model would provide for the effective utilization of the University’s programs and services through cost reductions realized by eliminating duplication, creating economies of scale and new revenue streams by modernizing operating systems to provide support in enrollment, research and fundraising, and, provide modern business support operations to enable the effective delivery of academic programs.

Discussion continued, with several members questioning the absence in the proposal of anticipated cost savings, the documented outcomes that are anticipated through the services of EOServ, and the impact of the Enrollment Management concept on the campuses, if the proposal is implemented.

The Campus Chancellors were asked to express their positions on the proposal. Chancellor Belton (SUSLA) expressed concern that the proposal gives the System control of a large portion of the campuses’ operations and creates another layer of bureaucracy. He suggested that the goals as stated in the proposal also could be achieved through the campuses’ implementation of directives and policies from the System level.
Chancellor Pitcher’s concern related to effect of the proposed Enrollment Management model on the SU Law Center where student enrollment is under the guidelines of the American Bar Association.

-RECESS-

On motion of Atty. Forstall, seconded by Atty. Dinvaught, the Board recessed its meeting.

Motion carried unanimously.

-RECONVENTION-

On motion of Rev. Gant, seconded by Atty. Magee, the meeting was reconvened.

Motion carried unanimously.

Discussion on the System Transformation Committee’s recommendations continued. Observations/suggestions by Board Members are noted below:

- Additional time should be allotted to the President and Chancellors to review and make needed modifications to the proposal; or, to provide an opportunity for the Chancellors to submit their proposals in support of campus autonomy.

- Delaying Board action on the proposal would not appear to have a negative impact on the recommended implementation date of July 1, 2013.

- The proposal should reflect specific dollar amounts from costs savings or projected revenue streams.

- Claims from the SUBR Faculty Senate President and others regarding the absence of faculty input into the proposal should be addressed.

In response to these observations and suggestions, President Mason advised that town hall meetings took place across the state, transformation committee members met with campuses’ operational staff, and focus group meetings were held on the campuses for faculty, staff and students. He also stated that the proposal offers a paradigm shift in the way in which the University conducts business; and offers the best business model for achieving the University’s goals. To delay implementation of the proposal would serve to threaten the University’s survival. Referring to a related action taken by the Board at its February meeting, Board Member Dinvaught spoke in support of adopting the plan, without further delay.
Atty. Dinvaut offered a motion to approve the recommendations of the System Transformation Committee. The motion was seconded by Atty. Bell.

Atty. Clayton offered a substitute motion to delay action on the System's Transformation Committee's recommendations until the December 2012 meeting. At that time, the Board would hear other concerns regarding the recommendations from Board Members, Administrators, faculty and students. The motion was seconded by Rev. Tolbert.

The substitute motion failed. Roll call vote: 5 yeas: Clayton, Dumas, Gant, Lawson, and Tolbert; 10 nays: Mire, M. Bell, P. Bell, Dinvaut, Forstall, Guichard, Hendricks, Kelly, Magee, and Smith; 0 abstentions.

The original motion carried: Roll call vote: 10 yeas: Mire, M. Bell, P. Bell, Dinvaut, Forstall, Guichard, Hendricks, Kelly, Magee, and Smith; 5 nays: Clayton, Dumas, Gant, Lawson, and Tolbert; 0 Abstentions.

DELIVERY OF DEGREE PROGRAMS THROUGH DISTANCE EDUCATION TECHNOLOGY

REQUEST FOR AUTHORITY TO OFFER AN EXISTING ACADEMIC PROGRAM THROUGH DISTANCE LEARNING TECHNOLOGIES
(Academic Affairs Policy 2.12, revised June 2012)

1. University or College
Southern University and A & M College: Nelson Mandela School of Public Policy and Urban Affairs.

2. Name, Phone Number and E-mail Address of person to be contacted for questions regarding this request
Dr. James Llorens, Chancellor, james_llorens@subr.edu, 225-771-5020 or
Dr. Janet Rami, Vice Chancellor and Provost, janet_rami@subr.edu, 225-771-2360

3. Name of Degree Program and CIP Classification
Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice. CIP: 43.01.04

4. List the initial date of implementation
The program was originally approved by the Board of Regents on June, 26, 2003.

5. Please briefly describe the program. If there are any differences between the program to be delivered via distance learning technologies and the program offered through the traditional mode of delivery (i.e., curriculum, admission, graduation requirements, etc.) please explain and provide a rationale for such differences.

The Department of Criminal Justice prepares students for careers in the sub-agencies of the criminal justice system and for continued education in professional and graduate schools. National and international themes related to contemporary challenges to the police, courts and corrections are among those studied and explored in theory and in practice through a diverse curriculum. The Criminal Justice Program seeks to educate students and provide skills required for a successful professional career, including critical thinking, the ability to communicate ideas in an oral and written form, conduct research, collect data, carry out statistical analyses, and use appropriate computer technology. In addition, the program teaches students to use ethical behavior in applying the knowledge acquired to factual situations and problems.

The differences between the current program and the one to be delivered via distance learning are few. The major distinction will be the term, i.e., eight-week intervals constitute a term as opposed to 16-week intervals during the regular semester. In offering an online degree, the Department addresses one of the University’s primary goals of reaching a broader student population, particularly those who are unable to take classes in a traditional setting and those non-traditional students who are returning to complete their degrees. Online courses support a student–centered environment that allows for e-teaching and e-learning experiences.

Curriculum:
See Appendix A

6. Please briefly describe the extent to which the program will be offered via distance learning technologies.

The Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice will be offered completely online. The online Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice will be made up of eight-week terms delivered via the Internet using a combination of synchronous and asynchronous activities. The program requires students to complete 120 credit hours to graduate. However, students are allowed to transfer 60 credit hours of general education requirements (previous credits may be taken in an online or traditional format). The criminal justice courses taken to secure the Bachelor’s degree will be housed under the University with the Nelson Mandela School of Public Policy and Urban Affairs, Department of Criminal Justice overseeing the courses specific to the Criminal Justice major.

7. Please describe any and all distance learning technologies which will be used to offer the proposed program.

The department will use one of the common platforms or learning management systems (LMS) such as Blackboard, eCollege, Moodle, etc. to deliver the course online and/or Blackboard (LMS) as a platform to deliver distance education. The LMS will be chosen by the University in conjunction with the Office of Information Technology and academic departments, and will be used to deliver course content. Also, other technologies to allow both asynchronous and synchronous course/content deliver will be used such as Chat, Virtual Classroom, Wimba, Illuminate, etc. Technology associated with E-conferencing, along with technology or software designed to detect improprieties such as plagiarism will also be incorporated. The Board of Supervisors of Southern University and Agricultural and Mechanical College (Board) hereby extends as Chancellor of Southern University New Orleans (SU NO), Victor Ukpolo, (Chancellor) who hereby accepts the following terms of employment.

TERM OF EMPLOYMENT

The employment established in this Agreement is for an initial term of two years (2) years, commencing on January 1, 2013 and ending on December 31, 2014.

This Agreement may be extended for six (6) months (January 1, 2015 - June 30, 2015), if the Chancellor satisfactorily meets the duties and conditions as stated herein during the two (2) years of the initial term. Upon the recommendation of the System President, the Board, in its sole discretion, shall provide notice of intent to extend this Agreement by October 31, 2014.

In the event this Agreement is not extended and Chancellor does not receive notice of termination, Chancellor will automatically revert back to an at-will employee as Chancellor without further action by the President and the Board.

The Board reaffirms the Chancellor’s initial appointment as a full professor with tenure at SUNO.

DUTIES AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The Chancellor shall oversee and provide leadership for the overall operations of Southern University New Orleans (SUNO). The responsibility shall specifically include facilitating and implementation of the Transformation Plan as approved by the Board on October 26, 2012.

The Chancellor shall report and be responsible to the Board through the System President as required in the Board’s by-laws.

The Chancellor shall comply with all other laws and regulations applicable to his specific office and public officials.

The Chancellor will be subject to an annual review by the System President to be conducted in a manner and by a procedure determined by the System President. The President along with the Chancellor will establish performance goals. The goals and objectives will be the basis for his performance review for the two (2) years of the Agreement and any extensions thereof.
COMPENSATION

The Chancellor shall be paid an annual salary of one hundred and sixty five thousand dollars ($165,000) for the term of this Agreement as compensation for his services while serving as Chancellor. This annual salary will be paid in the form of equal monthly installments no later than the last calendar day of each month in accordance with SUS’s payroll procedures.

The Chancellor shall receive a housing allowance of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.00) annually and an automobile allowance of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) annually, which shall be paid in the form of equal monthly installments no later than the last calendar day of each month in accordance with SUS’s payroll procedures.

The Chancellor will be eligible to participate in the benefits plans for health, insurance, retirement and any other benefits that are available for full time administrative employees.

In the event this Agreement lapses and the Chancellor reverts to an at-will employee, this provision will remain in full force and effect.

TERMINATION

Termination Without Cause

The Chancellor may be terminated without cause at the recommendation of the System President with approval of the Board. If the Chancellor is terminated without cause, he shall have the right to select an option as stated herein. If the Chancellor is terminated without cause and elects to become a full-time professor, he shall be entitled to the same base salary that he would have received as Chancellor for the balance of the initial term of this Agreement, unless such Agreement has been renewed.

The Chancellor, upon termination as Chancellor without cause, shall have the right to: (a) remain at SUNO and assume the position of full professor with tenure at SUNO or such other campus as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties or (b) he may elect to leave SUNO. Neglect of duty; and

Disability (defined as an inability to fulfill the duties of Chancellor for a period of at least ninety (90) consecutive days.).

SERVICE ON CORPORATE BOARDS

The Chancellor may serve as a member of the Board of Directors of other public or private corporations so long as such service is not a violation of any law and will not interfere with or detract from the performance of his duties and responsibilities as Chancellor or create any conflict of interest involving or affecting the SUNO. The Chancellor shall obtain approval from the System President prior to accepting an appointment to, or agreeing to continued service on, any such Board. The Chancellor shall oversee and provide leadership for the overall operations of Southern University Law Center (SULC). The responsibility shall specifically include facilitating and implementation of the Transformation Plan as approved by the Board on October 26, 2012.

The Chancellor shall report and be responsible to the Board through the System President as required in the Board’s by-laws.

The Chancellor’s employment shall be subject to all other rules, orders and regulations established and adopted by the Board, as amended from time to time except as such rules, orders and regulations conflict with the express terms of this Agreement.

The Chancellor shall comply with all other laws and regulations applicable to his specific office and public officials.

The Chancellor will be subject to an annual review by the System President to be conducted in a manner and by a procedure determined by the System President. The President along with the Chancellor will establish performance goals. The goals and objectives will be the basis for his performance review for the two (2) years of the Agreement and any extensions thereof.
COMPENSATION

The Chancellor shall be paid an annual salary of two hundred eighteen thousand two hundred eighty three dollars and ninety six cents ($218,283.96) for the term of this Agreement as compensation for his services while serving as Chancellor. This annual salary will be paid in the form of equal monthly installments no later than the last calendar day of each month in accordance with SUS’s payroll procedures.

The Chancellor shall receive a housing allowance of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.00) annually and an automobile allowance of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) annually, which shall be paid in the form of equal monthly installments no later than the last calendar day of each month in accordance with SUS’s payroll procedures.

The Chancellor will be eligible to participate in the benefits plans for health, insurance, retirement and any other benefits that are available for full time administrative employees.

The Chancellor’s compensation as a full-time faculty member at the time he retires or is terminated without cause shall be eighty percent (80%) of the Chancellor’s salary at the time the Chancellor steps down from the position as Chancellor, either before the end of this Agreement, its expiration or during subsequent service as Chancellor. In the event this Agreement lapses and the Chancellor reverts to an at-will employee, this provision will remain in full force and effect.

TERMINATION

Termination Without Cause

The Chancellor may be terminated without cause at the recommendation of the System President with approval of the Board. If the Chancellor is terminated without cause, he shall have the right to select an option as stated herein. If the Chancellor is terminated without cause and elects to become a full-time professor, he shall be entitled to the same base salary that he would have received as Chancellor for the balance of the initial term of this Agreement, unless such Agreement has been renewed.

The Chancellor, upon termination as Chancellor without cause, shall have the right to: (a) remain at SULC and assume the position of full professor with tenure at SULC or such other campus as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties or (b) he may elect to leave SULC. For purposes of this paragraph, the Chancellor’s faculty compensation shall be calculated and begin as of the last date of payment of the base salary due under this Agreement.

If the Chancellor elects to leave SULC following a termination without cause he will not be entitled to any further compensation beyond amounts earned as of his last day of employment. Any amounts owed Chancellor under this section shall be paid in the form of a lump sum no later than fifteen (15) days after Chancellor’s last day of employment.

The parties agree that the above payments represent liquidated damages and are all that is due should the Agreement be terminated without cause, except ordinary claims for benefits accrued and vested as of Chancellor’s termination under any pension or welfare benefit plan sponsored and/or maintained by SUS for the benefit of full-time administrative employees.

Resignation

The Chancellor shall provide the System President with notice of resignation of at least ninety (90) days unless such notice is waived by the System President or occasioned by illness or disability. If the Chancellor voluntarily elects to leave his position as Chancellor during the term of employment herein he shall be entitled to assume his appointment as a full professor with tenure within the Southern University System. He shall be compensated at the faculty pay described herein to be calculated as of the date of his letter of resignation. His faculty position will begin at the start of the fall or spring semester immediately following the expiration of the ninety (90) day notice period or following the effective date of his resignation should it be sooner.

Expiration

After the end of the term of employment specified herein, the Chancellor shall revert to his position as an at-will Chancellor without any action required on the part of the President or Board.

Termination For Cause

If the Chancellor is terminated for cause, he shall be terminated from all positions with SULC immediately, including his position as a tenured faculty member. If terminated for cause, with the exception of amounts earned prior to the Chancellor’s termination date and ordinary claims for benefits accrued and vested as of Chancellor’s termination under any pension or welfare benefit plan sponsored and/or maintained by SUS for the benefit of full-time administrative employees, the Chancellor shall be entitled to no further payments whatsoever after his termination date. The reasons for termination shall be provided to the Chancellor in writing and he shall be afforded an opportunity of not less than ten (10) days to respond to such notice and a due process hearing before the Board or a designated Board Committee.

The Board may terminate the Chancellor for cause for the following reasons but not limited to:
Conviction of a crime of moral turpitude;

A finding of academic dishonesty as that term is defined in the Faculty Handbook;

Felony indictment for a crime of moral turpitude or other crime which would bring SULC’s and Southern University System’s reputation in disrepute;

Neglect of duty; and

Disability (defined as an inability to fulfill the duties of Chancellor for a period of at least ninety (90) consecutive days.).

SERVICE ON CORPORATE BOARDS

The Chancellor may serve as a member of the Board of Directors of other public or private corporations so long as such service is not a violation of any law and will not interfere with or detract from the performance of his duties and responsibilities as Chancellor or create any conflict of interest involving or affecting the SULC. The Chancellor shall obtain approval from the System President prior to accepting an appointment to, or agreeing to continued service on, any such Board. The System President shall not unreasonably withhold its approval.

EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS

The Chancellor and the members of his immediate family shall be entitled to any privileges or benefits of attendance at SULC as afforded other full-time employees of the SULC.

Dear Dr. Mason:

Recently, a search committee, appointed by the Chancellor to evaluate applicants and make subsequent recommendation(s) for the position of Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, completed its work and submitted its report.

The Committee reviewed and evaluated applications for three applicants. Those applicants were: (1) Dr. Brandon Dumas, (2) Dr. Ann McDaniel-Echols, and (3) Dr. Rachel Young.

After reviewing the committee's report and its subsequent recommendation, I am pleased to recommend Dr. Brandon Dumas for the position of Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Dr. Dumas' name was the only name submitted by the Search Committee.

Dr. Dumas has ably and admirably served as Interim Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs for the past year. During this interim period, his performance as Chief Student Affairs Officer has been outstanding. In fact, he has enthusiastically embraced his role as leader of the Division. He has already led an effort to re-organize the Division by eliminating, combining, and otherwise creating positions that have resulted in significant cost savings and a raised level of efficiency, effectiveness and accountability in the Division of Student Affairs. His rapport with Student Affairs employees, student leaders and with students in general is extraordinary. His broad vision and appreciation for how the Division of Student Affairs must contribute positively and significantly to the total development of the student are apparent. His ability and willingness to work across divisions and units were demonstrated when he enthusiastically took on the daunting task of successfully coordinating and directing the registration process for the 2012 Fall Semester.

In comparison to the salaries for Chief Student Affairs Officers at some state and SWAC institutions, and the average CUPA, SREB, BOR, and NASPA salaries of chief student affairs officers, the salary that we are recommending for this position still places SUBR in the lowest position in terms of salary. I strongly believe that if we are to move forward, attract and retain energized, prepared, credentialed and visionary individuals who can provide the vigorous, knowledgeable and effective leadership that we need at this critical juncture in SUBR's history, the University must offer competitive salaries to the extent that its circumstances allow it to do so. The source of funding for the salary of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs position is 100% auxiliary funds.

It is for all of the above reasons that I recommend the appointment of Dr. Brandon Dumas as Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, effective December 1, 2012. I now request your approval and the approval of the Board at its November meeting.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Re: Vacancy Announcement - Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs

Dear Members of the Search Committee:

It is truly an honor to serve as Southern University and A&M College’s Interim Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. This institution has been a significant part of my professional and personal life, and I am very fortunate to have been a part of the Southern University family for many years. At this moment in time, I can think of no greater opportunity than to serve as Southern’s Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, and I ask that you please accept this letter as my application for the position.

I would be humbled to serve as the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at Southern University and A&M College, maintaining my role as a key player on the University’s team in creating a world-class, model educational environment and experience for all students. I fully recognize that this task is not simple, nor can all goals be achieved overnight. The process for developing this division into a higher education best practices model will take supreme sacrifice and dedication. It will also require vision and direction, understanding through data driven assessments, evaluations and feedback, and courageous leadership to make the decisions necessary for true progress to occur.

My professional experience and personal connection to Southern University make me the ideal candidate for the position of Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. I am uniquely academically and professionally qualified to provide leadership, guidance and vision to the Division for Student Affairs. I received my Associate and Bachelor Degrees from Southern University. As a student, I have benefitted from the provision of quality student services and support systems tailored to meet the specific needs of a diverse student body.

My tremendous passion for Southern University has led to my investiture in several positions within the Southern University System. During my matriculation, I acquired technical skills and understanding while serving in the Offices of Financial Aid and Admissions & Recruitment. During my tenure with the System Office, I served in various capacities including Coordinator for Student Affairs, Assistant to the Director of Internal Audit, Executive Associate to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff. For the past year, I have served as the Interim Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at Southern University - Baton Rouge. As Interim Associate Vice Chancellor, I have successfully discharged the duties and responsibilities expected of the next Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.
Over the course of my tenure as the Chief Student Affairs Officer at Southern University, I have moved expeditiously and deliberately to revolutionize the Division for Student Affairs into a 21st century student serving center capable of meeting the changing needs of a rapidly developing student population.

Under my leadership, the Division for Student Affairs has undergone a comprehensive reformation. As the University's financial circumstance deteriorated, Student Affairs identified means in which to reduce our dependence upon state general fund support. In January 2012, I convened the Student Affairs Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.), comprised of students, faculty, divisional and non-divisional staff, charging them with conducting a thorough assessment of student affairs operations and providing substantive recommendations for streamlining which should result in increased efficiency, effectiveness, accountability and generate cost savings. In February, the S.A.A.C. responded with a series of recommendations, many of which were included in the Student Affairs Reorganization Plan, ultimately approved by the University Administration. Among many outcomes, this reorganization plan resulted in the Division for Student Affairs becoming viable and nearly self-sustaining for the first time in Southern University History; that is to say that barely any state funds are used to support any aspect of the Division for Student Affairs's operation.

Recently, we launched the “Leave YOUR Mark on SU” Donor Brick Program, one that provides a multiplicity of positive benefits for the Division. Students, staff, faculty, alumni and university supporters across the globe now have the opportunity to reserve a personalize brick which will be laid in the to-be-remodeled Smith-Brown Memorial Student Union Courtyard. This program allows for members of the Jaguar Nation to document their experience at Southern University eternally on our campus, as a component of our overall renovation plans for this key facility, while generating foundational dollars to fund our key initiatives such as the “Jaguar Assistance for Graduating Seniors (J.A.G.S.)” Scholarship Program to be implemented in the coming months.

Student Affairs was charged with executing the Fall 2012 Registration Process, a monumental responsibility. This task required to my team, under my direction, to conduct a thorough evaluation of prior registration processes, diagnose perpetual issues creating inefficiencies, investigate institutional best practices and execute a holistically sound procedure for the benefit of the students. Our successful efforts resulted in a comparative increase in student completion of registration processes when compared to the previous terms. Consistency in leadership moving forward will allow for the current process to be refined for future implementation.

I recognize the Student Union to be the “living room” of the college campus; a central hub of student leisure, studies and social interaction. In the effort to increase the frequency positive engagement with students and convenience of access to Student Affairs administrators, I relocated the Division for Student Affairs offices to the Smith-Brown Memorial Union. This move opened my eyes to the outdated facilities provided by the student union for their purpose. Employing readily available funds available for student union operations, I created the Student Union Improvement Fund, which directed resources towards union renovations designed to create a contemporary, state-of-the-art student facility capable of meeting basic assembly and recreational needs of our students. More than $200,000.00 has been allocated for this fund, which has enabled us to provide upgrades to seating, install new flooring, carpet student and staff offices, and hire additional staffing. We have also identified additional revenue, which has been used to conduct upgrades and modernizations to the residential facilities in the amount of $250,000.00.
This year, the Division for Student Affairs, Student Government Association and various leadership organizations participated in a process, which ultimately led to the most comprehensive revision to student self-assessed fees in University history. This revision, enacted as a response to a student referendum overwhelmingly approved by the students in the Spring 2012 General Student Elections, eliminated and reduced certain fees consistent with the wishes of the students, while creating and repurposing other fees for which students have greater vested interests. Beginning this Fall, the Student Government Association has additional revenue to host special events, the Royal Court has become self-sufficient, student organizations have a dedicated funding source from which to afford high quality programs and participation in local, state, and national competitions, Student Affairs has the resources to implement initiatives which enhance student life and the Human Jukebox, Southern University’s Marching Band, has reliable financial support to maintain its stellar contributions to the fabric of University life.

In every way, the contributions of the Division for Student Affairs, during my tenure as the Interim Associate Vice Chancellor, have significantly affected the forward progression of Southern University. It is my intention, if selected, to continue to build upon a solid foundation my developing and training a competent, skilled executive leadership team capable to maximizing the effectiveness of their respective units. For your review and consideration, I have enclosed a copy of our Division’s Annual Report that summarizes some of our progress and accomplishments.

The Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs has begun the process of developing a strategic plan, with the input of the department heads, which will give our team a steady target for which to aim as we execute complex tasks simultaneously to expedite our progress. It is my expectation that this process will lead to certain outcomes such as additional organizations and support for diverse student demographics and transformations in how we make information available to students, such as with the Division for Student Affairs Interactive Dashboard Initiative.

The Division for Student Affairs plays a critical role in ensuring and attracting capable and prepared students, offering them the services and support necessary for their personal, professional and academic growth, retaining them through graduation and providing them with the career preparation and placement services they needs to garner gainful employment in their area of interest. I am committed to utilizing every skill and trait, both learned and innate, to ensure the success of the department and this institution. I am proud of the leadership, management and reform experience I have acquired, and I present myself ready and capable of showing my competence and preparedness to accomplish the task at hand.

I submit to you my humble and sincere request for consideration for the position of Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at Southern University and A&M College.

Yours in the Gold and Blue,

Dr. Ronald Mason, President

Baton Rouge, LA 70813

Dear Dr. Mason:

The Search Committee for the position of Vice Chancellor for Student Success has completed its work. Following the completion of the work of the committee, a decision was made to make the position an Assoc. Vice Chancellor rather than a Vice Chancellor position.

Consequently, we are requesting a waiver of the search for an Assoc. Vice Chancellor for Student Success. It is important to note here that Dr. Albert J. Tezeno was one of two finalists for the Vice Chancellor position.

After reviewing the committee’s report and interviewing the two recommended applicants, I am pleased to recommend the appointment of Dr. Albert J. Tezeno for the position of Assoc. Vice Chancellor for Student Success, effective January 1, 2013.

The experience of this applicant is most impressive. What SUBR needs urgently is an individual with broad knowledge, understanding and appreciation for the key components in an enrollment management unit and an ability to coordinate and manage these units to elevate the levels of effectiveness, efficiency and accountability. This applicant has a proven record in this regard. In his current position as Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management and Director of the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships, he has successfully turned the University’s recruitment and retention numbers from negatives to positives.

The University where he is now employed has experienced an increase in its enrollment and in the University’s graduation rates. We are eager to have this individual implement similar recruitment and retention strategies at SUBR, while simultaneously demonstrating his broad knowledge base in the areas that would be under his supervision. This applicant is also thoroughly trained in the Banner Student Information System. He has also been responsible for marked improvements in the area of customer service for units under his supervision and for improving the registration process.

He is energetic, forward thinking and eminently qualified to serve in this capacity. I now request your approval and the approval of the Board at its November meeting.

Sincerely,

James L. Llorens

To Whom It May Concern:

I write this correspondence today to earnestly recommend Dr. Albert J. Tezeno for the opportunity to be your next Vice Chancellor for Student Success. Dr. Tezeno and I have known each other for nearly three years through working with one another at Grambling State University. I witnessed him lead a team that helped change an entire department and impact a whole division through the simple notion of Customer Service. He comes from an extensive career at the Texas Southern University and has achieved greatness at Grambling.

Dr. Tezeno is by far what anyone would call "demonstrated vs. stated". He is one that does very little in terms of talking about what he wants to do but spend most of his time modeling his leadership skills. This opportunity is great for him in that he has been doing what’s required in this position for nearly three years. Not only does he manage the efforts of Financial Aid, Retention, Registrar and the Office of Recruitment and Admissions, he is an instructor for First Year Experience, which directly correlates to the experience your Institution is looking for.

I often refer to the saying "When preparation meets opportunity..." as it relates to life and one always being prepared for when it produces you with your next “moment”. At this moment in time I believe that this opportunity is what Dr. Tezeno has been preparing for the last fifteen years. Please allow this letter to serve as an official recommendation for Dr. Albert J. Tezeno to be considered for this amazing opportunity.

Sincerely,

Kevan L. Turman,
Assistant to the President

Tezeno wears two hats

Albert Tezeno began heading Grambling State University's Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships Feb. 1. Shortly after he became interim associate vice president for Enrollment Management and Retention. Tezeno, a 1990 graduate of GSU, said working in the area of financial aid is one of the most rewarding careers. "It is rewarding to help students conquer their dreams and make them come true," he said.

Tezeno was the first in his family to go to college, so he did not understand the financial aid process and how getting into college worked. It inspired him to pursue a career in this area, so he could help others who may not understand.

One of the most challenging things he said he has to do is tell a student that he or she is not eligible to receive Title IV funds.

In various capacities, Tezeno said that he always exemplified good customer service. He tells his team that perception is reality. "The way that students perceive us, that's the way we really are," he said. Cheerfully greeting students is very important. "We have to change the perception of the office by administering good customer service to students. We have to change the way we communicate," he said.

Another problem that he is changing is helping students to understand that when they complete their FAFSA paperwork that it is not the end of the process.

"Many times when students say that their paperwork is lost, they do not understand that completing a FAFSA is the initial process. When they are selected, we need additional paperwork," he said.

Now, students' paperwork will be entered immediately into the system and given to the counselor.

Getting students to meet deadlines is a challenge that he has faced at GSU and other schools. It is usually continuing students, not new students.

Some continuing students do not adhere to deadlines and figure they will get their aid processed as soon as they turn in their applications. New students are usually anxious to get started and try to follow-up with their paperwork once they turn it in.

Tezeno is working towards organizing the office better to decrease the number of students standing in line, providing excellent customer service and processing aid more accurately and timely.
"I am very excited. I know we can do this, and I can't wait until students see we can do this because it is all about our most valuable assets - the students," he said.

When he arrived at GSU, Tezeno gave each team member words of inspiration to display: "Our performance today is better than yesterday but not as good as it will be tomorrow."

Tezeno believes his greatest quality is that he can do what anyone else in his area can. He sees himself as a leader, not a boss or supervisor and is willing to serve in any capacity. He refers to his employees as "team," not "staff."

This area is not a new one for Tezeno. He started as a student worker in the financial aid office in 1987 and became a counselor in 1993.

After leaving Grambling he worked briefly at Texas College before becoming associate director then director and later executive director at Texas Southern University. While employed at TSU he was part of a team that helped the university rid itself of a $10 million debt to the Department of Education.

Tezeno said coming back to GSU as financial aid director is a great feeling and says a lot about his integrity, love for the school and the work ethic his alma mater bestowed upon him to make him the leader he is today. He and his wife Sophia have one son, McKinnley.

Dr. Mason,

With your approval, we would like to place the attached request for approval from Southern Field Services to enter the campus and perform surveys on three tracts of land owned by Southern University. The surveys will be done to determine if they can run pipelines ROW's through the properties. The permission form and the map depicting the three tracts of land are attached. One tract is west of the Baton Rouge Campus, second tract is North of the campus and west of University Place Subdivision (Avenues). The third tract of land is located at the Ag Center Experimental Farm five miles north of SUBR Campus.

Southern Field Services have not made any monetary offers at this time. They are requesting permission to survey the property for feasibility before any offers are made.

Mr. Vincent,

As per our phone conversation of earlier today, we would like to acquire survey permission from Southern University for the three tracts of land shown on the attached Google Maps.

I have also attached our basic Survey Permission form for review. This would simply allow us to enter onto the land a perform a survey of the lands.

We hope to begin our survey work beginning on or about November 19, 2012 if there is any way possible.

Please review and let me know if you have any questions or need anything else.

Thanks.

Enclosures
Report to SUS Board of Supervisors
Summary of Energy Savings Projects and Initiatives
November 23, 2012

Baton Rouge

1. Three phases of Hot and Chill underground pipe replacements – this saved on energy and chemical make-up water wasted from broken deteriorated pipe loops.
2. New Energy Efficient Boilers Installed – The Hot Water Loop on Campus was replaced with new energy efficient boilers that were placed in buildings or building clusters.
3. New LED Street Lighting installed – The lighting on major streets on campus was replaced with LED energy efficient lights on new stainless steel poles.
4. New LED Garden Lighting Installed – Lighting around buildings, along sidewalks and in front of some buildings were replaced with energy efficient Garden Lights.
5. New Parking Lot LED Lighting – Some parking lots received energy efficient lighting replacements.
6. New Lighting in J. S. Clark Administration Building – Every light in the Administration Building was replaced with LED energy efficient lighting, both interior and exterior.
   a. LED Lights are “Light Emitting Diodes” that will last up to 25 years or longer. You not only save money on energy conservation, you save on bulb replacement and you save on labor to replace bulbs. The typical light in the Administration Building was a 240 watt fixture that was replaced with a 40 watt LED fixtures.
7. Other savings: Light color roof replacements are saving energy; Installing T8 light replacements in buildings; updating HVAC systems; shutting off lights in buildings; placing computers, copiers and other equipment in an energy saving mode that will cause it to shut down when not in use; and installing motion detectors in offices to shut off lights automatically when the room is not occupied.
Shreveport

1. Recently purchased a new chiller, retrofitted an existing boiler and installed two new cooling towers.
2. Begun implementation of an energy conservation program.
3. Exploring the possibility of performance based energy upgrades.
4. IT has instituted sleep mode use programming as a campus-wide computer related equipment standard.
5. Two new “high thermal transfer” energy efficient cooling towers replaced our inefficient plant originals.
6. Boiler and chiller control set-points have been reprogrammed to stage equipment on and off as necessary, changing from extreme “all on or all off” programming.
7. Cooling tower control set-points have reprogrammed to include a “pump only” mode, saving the energy necessary to operate the fan(s) unless the demand calls for that level of evaporative cooling.
8. In the last year, the campus has gone from less than 60% to over 85% operational on HVAC equipment.
9. A boiler calibration schedule was reestablished to ensure efficiency is maintained.
10. Old water heaters in the Administration, Science and NCR buildings were replaced with “energy star” efficient replacements.
11. Occupancy sensors, T8 fixtures and compact florescent lights (CFL) have been employed in the Administration Building lobby remodeling, and all recent building projects.
12. T8 fixtures are being purchased as the standard replacement/retrofit of existing T12 fixtures.
13. CFL retrofits have been made as the standard to replacement of all standard incandescent lamps.
14. All lighting timers have been repaired and set to optimum energy saving usage.
15. In the process of replacing all emergency and exit lighting to LED fixtures.

New Orleans

1. Replacement of VAV boxes, new copper piping and thermostats and controls on the second and third floor of the Administration Building.
   a. Energy cost savings for this project will be based on the efficiencies of the VAV boxes as compared to the radiant heat systems that were originally installed in 1959.
2. Generally, the slow pace towards comprehensive renovation and restoration of the campus (FEMA, FP&C) has delayed the implementation of potential energy saving improvements.
   a. The Old Science Building, New Science Building and the Multi-Purpose Building are major energy consumers on campus. These buildings are slated for demolition.
   b. Construction of the new Central Plant is a tremendous opportunity with respect to energy savings. The temporary chillers that currently provide chilled water needs represent a very expensive way to cool the campus. The new Central Plant with new energy efficient chillers, pumps and cooling towers can be expected to immediately to help save on utility costs when completed.

System-Wide

1. Explore system-wide energy conservation measures and policies
2. Explore alternative energy opportunities, (Solar, Co-generation, etc.)
3. Explore performance contracting opportunities

The amount of utilities savings from January 2012 to June 2012 was $786,935. The amount of savings is attributed to energy conservation, replacement of hot water system and implementation of four day class schedule. Since all buildings are not metered, we are unable to determine the amount of cost savings per building or the amount of savings resulting from the four day class schedule.

SU Urban Forestry Marks 20 Years, Gets Funding for "Educational Forest"

Southern University's Urban Forestry Program celebrated its 20th anniversary recently with the country's top forester officially designating a portion of the campus as an educational forest.

The designation is part of a $120,000 "Urban Forest Education Experience" grant from the Forest Service to restructure an area of thick vegetation and animal life along a campus-wide ravine into an outdoor classroom for urban forestry students and nature enthusiasts.

Some $60,000 of the funds will be used to establish a living forest laboratory that will be part of the Urban Forestry program's curriculum and will be used for research. "Everything is there, plants, trees, animals...," said Dr. Kamran Abdollahi, professor and program leader of the Urban Forestry program. The rest of the funding will be used to establish an urban forestry training program at the site.

Dozens of alumni of the Urban Forestry program gathered on campus recently to celebrate the 20-year anniversary. USDA Forest Service Chief Tom Tidwell and members of his staff came to the University to participate in the festivities marking the 20-year milestone and to be part of the ribbon-cutting ceremony for the educational forest.

"This program at Southern is an excellent example of how we're being able to reach out and attract some different people to get engaged and involved in all aspects of forestry...and I look forward to us being able to move forward with this kind of rejuvenation of a longstanding partnership with Southern University," Tidwell said.

The USDA has pledged to assist Southern in attracting undergraduate and graduate students in forestry and related natural resource science fields, provide students with employment opportunities, tuition assistance, paid internships and books. Students will also receive job placement assistance after earning their Masters or doctoral degrees.

Chancellor James L. Llorens said the agreement and the outdoor learning lab will provide the university with another avenue "to attract students to the Baton Rouge campus and it helps us to build the reputation of our Urban Forestry program."

Abdollahi said, "the Educational Forest collaborative initiative will preserve our treasured wetland urban forests on the campus and will provide opportunities for students to learn, conduct research, and utilize it for recreational purposes."

Eventually, Abdollahi said, there will be walking paths and observation areas in "this living laboratory."

SU's Dr. Kathryn Jones appointed as National Surveyor

Southern University's Dr. Kathryn Jones, assistant professor in the Department of Therapeutic Recreation and Leisure Studies, has been chosen to be a site surveyor for the Commission of Accreditation for Recreation Therapy Education (CARTE) Program.

The CARTE selected Jones in August after she attended an information session on the new accreditation process held at the American Therapeutic Recreation Association Conference in Indianapolis, Indiana.

She will visit universities nationwide to determine the accreditation of the recreational therapy programs.

"I am looking forward to the application of this position so that we will be better equipped for the accreditations process here at Southern University," said Jones.

Recreational therapy is a part of the therapeutic recreation field that involves trained professionals to provide outcome-based recreation services. The program was recognized as an allied health discipline by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs in 2012.

Center For Service Learning presents donated supplies to schools

Southern University's Center for Service Learning donated boxes of school supplies to the Baker School System as part of the CSL's annual "School Supply Drive."

Ulysses Joseph, Superintendent of the Baker School System, accepted the supplies at a short ceremony on the Baton Rouge campus.
Dr. De'Ette Perry, Baker's director of Secondary Education Programs, accompanied the superintendent to accept the donation of supplies. "We appreciate the generosity expressed by the students towards our educational endeavors," she said.

The school supplies included boxes of pens, pencils, glue, binders, calculators, notebooks, paper and other items. They were donated by Southern students, many of whom are part of the CSL, a student volunteer program on the Baton Rouge campus.

Volunteerism and giving to others is essential to the education of SU students, said Kristan Gordon, Service Learning Coordinator. Students learn that "it's necessary to assist those who are less fortunate..."

Architecture major D'Nae Capron and history major Lonnie Brooks, both CLS students, helped fill the boxes and presented the supplies to the Baker school officials.

"It was my pleasure to help out in any way I could for the kids," Capron said.

Brooks said, "Volunteering is a very rewarding experience that we should all do."

Alum tells students how SU prepped her for major program

Southern University alumnae Cacey Stevens told students here that her experiences at the university eased her transition into a special graduate program at the University of Chicago.

Speaking to SUBR students, Stevens said, "Southern has taught me that with determination I can handle any challenge. So I don't let any low moment be an indication of whether or not I am competent or able to hang with the big fish."

Stevens, a Baton Rouge native, spoke to students in the nationally recognized Timbuktu Academy and Louis Stokes Louisiana Alliance for Minority Participation (LS-LAMP) students about the influence Southern has had on her and her success in graduate school at the University of Chicago.

The physics major was a student in the Timbuktu Academy and LS-LAMP as an undergraduate at Southern from 2004 to 2008. Stevens returned to speak to Southern students about how her life has been positively impacted by the Timbuktu Academy and LAMP.

Both programs emphasize the STEM subjects – science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

The Baton Rouge native is a part of the duel masters and doctoral degree program at the University of Chicago. She received her masters in 2010 and is now in the process of earning her Ph.D. by the summer of 2014.

"Southern has helped mold me and prepare me for the challenges at an institution like the University of Chicago," said Stevens.

Being in a major where being African-American and a female is not the norm, Stevens said she is not a "black woman who happens to like physics but a physicist that happens to be black."

Stevens urged students to understand that "Southern is a great institution for preparing students for challenges and that there are no limits to what's possible with a foundation from a school like Southern."

Stevens, who was the Student Grand Marshall, the top academic graduate in the Spring 2008 Commencement, encouraged the students to take advantage of the Summer Research Opportunities Program at the University of Chicago to see if graduate school is the right path for them.

Tobacco initiative creating healthier communities through collaboration

The SU Ag Center Communities of Color (CoC) Network continues to impact lives, statewide - in the arena of tobacco prevention and control. Regional coordinators continue their assault on 'Big Tobacco' by fighting back against decades of lies. This effort is carried out through collaborative partnerships that educate and empower citizens of Louisiana to live healthier, tobacco-free lives. During the month of October, several educational activities were held with African American youth, young adults and adults focusing exclusively on the dangers of tobacco usage and secondhand smoke exposure.

Shirley Simon organized an annual 'Injustice' event on the campus of Southern University at New Orleans on October 17th. Simon, along with her presenter, Mrs. Elizabeth Fletcher, discussed human trafficking and the tobacco industry. The most notable information from this event was the knowledge about tobacco giant, Phillip Morris, admitting to utilizing child workers in tobacco farms. Due to this type of work, young children were exposed to a rare life-threatening yet painful condition called Green Tobacco Sickness.

Shawntell Lewis-Harrell continues to make a difference in Central Louisiana through policy adaptation and implementation as part of the CoC Network 100% Tobacco-Free Church Initiative. Effective Sunday, October 14th, the use of any and all tobacco products during church functions at the Berea Missionary Baptist Church in Alexandria was prohibited.

Harrell educated members of the congregation and community on the dangers of tobacco usage, secondhand smoke and provided cessation information to those interested in kicking their nicotine addiction. As a result of the information received, Rev. Leroy H. Johnson, Jr. and his congregation are now tobacco-free.

LaTonya Owens was asked to attend and participate in the ‘Fall Harvest Health Fair’ at “The Arbor and The Terrace” in Ruston. Several participants shared their stories surrounding the issue of tobacco with Owens. Many participants were smokers and family members and/or friends of current smokers, who shared concerns about the dangerous impact of tobacco upon their lives.

Owens discussed possible life-saving information with attendees, one-on-one. Following her conversations, Owens distributed literature on strategies that could assist in cessation efforts for smokers and their loved ones. Throughout the event, Owens and CoC Network were praised for tirelessly educating and impacting constituents concerning tobacco prevention and control.

More than 75 Youth and adults from the community visited the Southern Ag Center booth, where they received information from Ervin on healthy eating, and physical activity. They were motivated and encouraged to develop healthy eating habits early in life. The youth received Southern Ag Center backpacks with relevant information for healthy living.
More than twenty Capital High Academy students participated in the “Above The Influence” (ATI) Summit. The three-day summit was the result of a partnership between Southern University Ag Center and 100 Black Men of Metro Baton Rouge, Ltd.

On Monday, October 15, ATI participants from Capital High took part in a closed door “Influence discussion” where the teens engaged in an intimate conversation about their thoughts and perspectives on the topic of influence. On Tuesday, the ATI participants took part in “Tag it” at Cortana Mall in Baton Rouge, La. “Tag it” is an official ATI activity designed to increase teens’ awareness of influence in their environment, and how influence may prompt teenagers to make decisions.

On the final day of ATI week, an open panel discussion was held on the influences that affect teenagers and how they play a role in their daily lives. The teenagers gave everyone in attendance a glimpse of their personal lives and how they handle positive and negative influences.

“It’s okay to be above the influence,” said Lorenzo Harris. “It’s okay to talk to your peers because they’re going through the same thing.” The majority of the teenagers in attendance echoed that same sentiment. “What I learned from ATI is that I’m not the only one going through problems,” said Antonio Davis. Shaquille Dillon, President of the Collegiate 100 Black Men, Southern University Chapter, expressed that there is pressure in college as well. “There’s peer pressure in college too, you have to look at it from a broad standpoint,” he said.

Parents and adults in the audience expressed their concerns as well. “Maybe your parents have that same mentality and want the best for you because they know your full potential,” said Jana Snowden, in response to panelist John Brunfield’s comment about how he is protective of his younger sister and tries to steer her away from the negative influences in high school.

ATI gave the participants an arena to express themselves openly and freely, without judgment or punishment, something that many of them have never experienced before.

“Sometimes we need someone to talk to or someone to just listen, said Sundae Brumfield. “Look at it from our point of view.”

The National Above the Influence campaign aims to provide new ways to engage youth in dialogue about both positive and negative influences in their lives and to empower them to make healthy decisions.

Charisma Deberry, Research Associate-Program Development and Kelli Palmer, graduate research associate coordinated the ATI activities.

Four Approved for Endowed Professorship Recognitions

Four faculty members have been approved for endowed professorships in recognition of past and potential original contributions to the academic discipline. In addition to the academic honor given to these individuals, the endowed professorship provides funding for support of the recipients' teaching, research, and service responsibilities.

Associate Professor Nadia Nedzel has been approved for the Reilly Family Endowed Professorship, established by the Reilly Family Foundation.

Nedzel's research interests include international and comparative commercial law, policy, and jurisprudence -- specifically, the interrelationship among market economy, technology, the rule of law, and personal autonomy. She has completed a new casebook on Louisiana Sales and Lease, and continues to work on her Rule of Law project.
Vice Chancellor John Pierre has been named to the Vanue B. Lacour Endowed Professorship, established by the Louisiana Outside Counsel in honor of one of the Law Center’s original faculty members and former dean.

Pierre, who joined the faculty in 1990 and was promoted to vice chancellor in 2006, has published numerous articles on tax law, sales and contracts, real estate and commercial law, ranging from magazine features to legal journal and law review articles.

Prof. Winston Riddick received the B. K. Agnihotri Endowed Professorship, established by Attorney Walter C. Dumas, in honor of the Chancellor Emeritus.

Riddick, who joined the SULC faculty fulltime in 1995, has an extensive background in state government and was adviser/counsel to two Louisiana governors. His publications reflect his interest and expertise in political and urban affairs.

SULC Ranks Again, No. 1 in Diverse Faculty

SULC is one of the nation’s most outstanding law schools and is ranked #1 in most faculty diversity, according to the education services company, The Princeton Review, which features SULC in the new 2013 edition of its book, “The Best 168 Law Schools.”

The Princeton Review does not rank the law schools in the book on a single hierarchical list from 1 to 168, or name one law school best overall. Instead, the book has 11 ranking lists of the top 10 law schools in various categories, such as “Most Diverse Faculty,” in which SULC gets the top ranking; “Most Chosen By Older Students,” in which SULC ranks #2; and “Best Environment for Minority Students,” in which SULC ranks #3.

According to Chancellor Freddie Pitcher, Jr., the SULC administration and faculty are pleased, and not surprised, with the rankings in these areas as they mirror what SULC tries to accomplish in addressing its mission of access and opportunity. “Through the evening division, we have attracted more mature students,” Pitcher said.

“As strong supporters of diversity in the educational setting, we believe that the contributions of mature students, as well as that of various racial/ethnic groups and females, are valuable and beneficial assets to the academic environment of the Law Center,” he said. “The students recognize that we encourage an inclusive environment.”

Dear SUNO Friends and Family,

Since last I addressed you, much has happened within the Southern University at New Orleans community. The highlight for many of us was Homecoming Week. Homecoming is an opportunity for us to unite our past with our present and to revel in school spirit, and the "crowning" momento of each Homecoming is our coronation of Miss SUNO. I would like to extend congratulations once again to Morgan Douglas who reigns as Miss SUNO 2012-13. She, her royal court and all of the students who served as either sweethearts or escorts put the very best of SUNO on display. A special "Thank you" to all of those who participated in both the planning and execution of this beautiful event. It truly was a night of "Enchantment Under the Sea."

SUNO also celebrated its annual fundraiser, The BASH. This year’s ceremony honored two SUNO pioneers, Addison Carey and Artis Davenport. These gentlemen and scholars were part of the foundation of this great university and combined for nearly 80 years of service to this institution. Once again, I thank everyone who played a part in the success of the event, particularly the Southern University at New Orleans Foundation.

November is vitally important to our students as the preregistration period for the Spring 2013 semester has begun. Our counselors are actively reaching out to students to get them engaged and informed in planning their classes. We encourage our students to both meet with their advisors and to take advantage of this important registration window and ask that faculty and staff continue to assist students in the registration process. By utilizing the preregistration period we are able to provide more efficient service during the Spring 2013 registration period.

SUNO continues to work closely with the Louisiana Office of Facility Planning & Control on the process of installing the new modular facilities which will be used on the Lake Campus until our permanent facilities are constructed. The project should go out to bid within the next two weeks and we anticipate that the installation will be completed before the end of the 2013 Spring semester.

On the field of play, our Women’s Volleyball team has had its most successful season in its brief history, setting team records for regular season conference wins with 8 and regular season wins with 20 with a game still to play before the GCAC tournament.

The SUNO Women’s Cross Country Team placed third in the GCAC tournament with Mackola Joseph earning All GCAC honors in the 5K and qualifying for the NAIA tournament along with Safia Jenkins and Rispha Sang.

On the Men’s Side, SUNO finished 5th overall with Rushain Murray and Warith Fennoy both qualifying for the NAIA tourney.

Our Men’s and Women’s basketball seasons are just underway with both teams being favorites to bring home conference championships. We wish them luck and will be following closely all season. Go Knights!

Sincerely,

Victor Ukpolo, Ph. D.
Chancellor

Fall Motivational Seminar 2012 Presented by Student Support Services

Annual Fall Motivational Seminar was held on October 10, 2012, here at Southern University at Shreveport in the Jesse N. Stone Lecture Hall. Our Theme: “Take Control … Change with Confidence”

Our speaker gave the students a driving force on how to empower their lives. He acquainted them with life experiences of various opportunities for improving their lives, He also encourage the new incoming students to take control of their life choices, and decisions. The challenge was to “Think outside the box”.

Our speaker ended with a quote Potential “Focusing your life solely on making a buck shows a certain poverty of ambition. It asks too little of yourself. Because it’s only when you hitch your wagon to something larger than yourself that you realize your true potential.” President Barack Obama.
GREAT AMERICAN SMOKE OUT (G A S O)

November 15th marks the 37th Great American Smoke Out. This event encourages smokers to mark the date as a plan in advance to quit smoking on that day. By doing so, smokers will be taking an important step towards a healthier life – one that can lead to reducing heart and cancer risk.

Urina F. Holt, Regional Coordinator for SU Ag Center (Communities of Color Network) will host a Great American Smoke Out event this Thursday, November 15th, at Southern University at Shreveport (Johnny Vance Student Union); 3050 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Quitting is a difficult process; but it can be done. To have the best chance of quitting successfully, you need to know what you’re up against, what your options are, and where to go for help.
