SOJOURN TO SELMA: LAW CENTER CELEBRATES 57TH ANNIVERSARY OF BLOODY SUNDAY DURING ANNUAL SELMA BRIDGE CROSSING JUBILEE

Law Center students visiting historical sites in Selma.

Through the Louis A. Berry Institute for Civil Rights & Justice, over fifteen students participated in the Selma Bridge Crossing Jubilee which is centered around the yearly anniversary of “Bloody Sunday.” Law Center students enjoyed an immersive look at history during amazing tours and educational programming in Montgomery and Selma.

CANDID CONVERSATION WITH JUDICIARY COUNCIL

Judiciary Council panelists.

The Louisiana Judicial Council hosted a Candid Conversation with Judiciary. Judges within the state spoke with students about their day to day lives on and off the bench. After the panel, students and judges networked during a casual reception.

THE SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY LAW REVIEW HOSTS THE 2022 LAW REVIEW SYMPOSIUM

The Southern University Law Review hosted a riveting symposium on Voting Rights. This symposium featured panel discussions that explored the history of voting rights, brought awareness to the recent redistricting, reapportionment, and restrictions efforts, and discussed ways to overcome the attacks and how to move forward.

CONFIRM KBJ: SULC STUDENTS TAKE HISTORICAL TRIP TO WASHINGTON DC TO CELEBRATE CONFIRMATION PROCESS OF KETANJI BROWN JACKSON

Fifty Law Center students traveled to Washington, D.C. to support Supreme Court nominee Ketanji Brown Jackson. Students participated in events hosted by Demand Justice, including a welcome dinner, a rally to the Supreme Court and an official watch party with other supporters of the nomination. Many students were interviewed by local and national news outlets. They also attended networking activities that featured public defender's, policy professionals and many other leaders.

Law Center students participate in rally before the start of the confirmation hearings.

PARTNERSHIPS

spearheaded by ARDN, to popularize the Sustainable Development Goals, in collaboration with United Nations system entities, the international community, civil society, the private sector, academia, the world of sport and culture, and governments. The ARDN Red Card Campaign, which falls within the framework of Pathway to Solutions, highlights Sustainable Development Goal number five, recognizes that women’s rights are human rights, and seeks to mobilize individuals from all sectors of society to commit to putting an end to all forms of gender-based discrimination and violence.

Through this partnership, SULC and ARDN also plan develop internship opportunities for SULC students with ARDN’s network, create a Motorsports gaming and esports curriculum, and help expand the awareness around the Sustainable Development Goals of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, and to end all forms of discrimination and violence against women and girls.

The Southern University Law Center and African Renaissance and Diaspora Network (ARDN) established a three-year partnership to further contribute to the development of hybrid and online programs at the intersection of law and esports and gaming.

SULC and ARDN will develop esports curriculum, explore the development of curriculum and programming related to environmental justice, and collaborate for a special United Nations project, “Pathway to Solutions.”

The Pathway to Solution’s Initiative is an international, multilateral special project for the United Nations,
